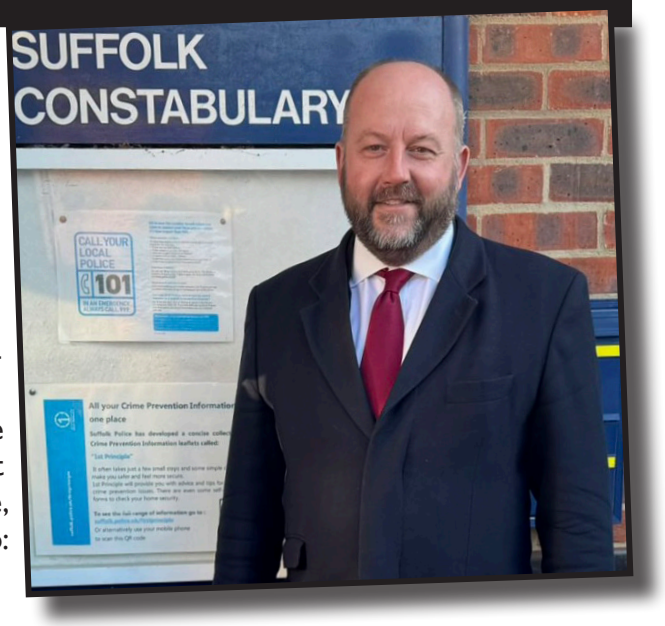
NICK TIMOTHY MP'S PETITION

SAY NO TO THE ABOLITION OF SUFFOLK CONSTABULARY



Labour plan to dissolve Suffolk Constabulary and create a huge regional force spanning Suffolk and Norfolk. West Suffolk MP Nick Timothy exposed their plan through Parliamentary questions.

And as he told BBC Suffolk, this is something he strongly opposes because it would take decision-making and accountability even further away from where people live. We need the police really focused on local crimes — on burglaries, on street crime — and that means we need local accountability. If you agree with Nick in oposing the abolition of Suffolk Constabulary please fill in your details below to sign his petition. Then please post the sheet in a stamped envelope to: The Conservative Office, Moulton Road, Newmarket, CB8 8DY, or email a scan to: campaign@westsuffolkconservatives.com
